TRUCKERS' FRANCHISE IN HANDS OF LEAGUE

Question of Disposing of Club Will Be Considered at Meeting in Richmond To-Night. Portsmouth Owners Desired.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Norfolk, Va. June 22.—The franchise of the Portsmouth baseball team to-day passed into the hands of the Virginia League, and for the present the aggregation will be handled by the larger body.

The old owners having refused to further finance their holdings, Secretary Gregory, acting for President Wells, arrived in the city this morning and took charge of the situation. He notified the players that the "ghost" would walk during the day, and just prior to the game, at a table in the box office of the Norfolk grounds, made out the pay roll, and the men were fixed as they passed out preparatory to tled with, and the public not being let into the confidence of the league management, the attendance was not up to the standard. The calibre of the game made it deserve a capacity audience.

The box work of both Walker and Hamilton was of the big league kind, and but for a free pass and an unfortunate error there is little question that the game would have gone several extra innings. In fact, there was little chance of a score until the ninth inning, and when this came the Truckers made good, while the Tars fell down on their chance good and

Then, in making a throw to second. Then, in making a throw to second to catch Hamilton napping, he was wild, sending the ball deep into centre field, and Hamilton troted home. Toner drew a free pass, Mc-Farland struck out. Gulheen grounded to Bonner and died at the first station, Bowen being held cleverly on third, Clunk grounded to the same man, and ended all further hopes.

The Tars made an effort to tie things up in their half of the ninth, but falled to deliver the goods, with a good chance. Manager Clark went in to bat for Johnson, and hit safe. Busch sacrificed him to second, Bonner sent out a short fly to left. Murdock was, purposely walked. Mullaney stabbed one to right, but Hannifin captured it neatly, ending the game. Batting Averages (Bat-In the vernacular synonymous with spree, jag, bender and mous with spree, jag, bender and pifileatory bun.)

Though the hits come slow and single and the strikeouts grow apace, and the pop flies gaily wander through the bule, though the but swings daily-ingly, like a dead Crusader's mace, and the ball won't linger as it saunters through the batter lets those straining runners die; there's a slogan that harasses every player, its the yelp. "O, you bet their BAT-ting average is high." Some may say the suitight blinds them, and plays havowith their sight, and others think the diamond glare is bad, one enthusiast, close behind them says their willows have the blight, and its that that makes their slugging records, sad; there are many ways forthcoming, explanations for each silp, and the men who give them give them with a sigh, for it all gets down to Rumming, O that awful Reanoke trip, when they showed the BAT-ting average Was High.

Brilliant Fielding Marks Closing Game of Series.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Danville, Va., June 22.—In an exciting pitchers' battle here this afternoon between Bussey and Sexton, Danville won the closing game of the series by won the closing game of the series by the score of 3 to 1. The game was interesting and full of ginger from the start, and was marked by some brilliant fielding. Laughlin's hits brought in both runs. The visitors started off with a run, following a clean hit by Hoffman, the first man up, an error and a sacrifice fly. In the fifth Danville took the lead. Hooker knocked a two-bagger and Laughlin sent one under right field fence, scoring Hooker ahead of him.

right field rence, scoring Hooker ahead of him.
